'Spirit of Nature'
represents the search for
a renewed connection
to nature.

The colours and designs in this collection reflect the reconciliation of man with nature. People have been harnessing materials direct from nature for thousands of years.

We revisited these natural, raw materials to create our beautiful 'Spirit of Nature' designs. Instead of using pencils and brushes, we fashioned patterns from sisal rope, constructed shapes from marble, and embroidered designs using natural yarns. This resulted in a number of exquisite patterns with a natural look and feel.

Ropes made from natural yarn and the exposed veins of mineral rock are recurring themes in the 'Spirit of Nature' collection.

the seasons

The colours in the 'Spirit of Nature' collection transcend the seasons; they're based on essential palettes derived from natural materials from deepest nature. You won't find any mismatched colour combinations in nature, because nature is the consummate designer.
